A. Salary
	£38,592 per year	The average salary for a social work team leader was £35,410 for 2007/08. ¹ As no new salary estimates are available, this has been inflated to reflect the pay increments for social workers reported in the Local Government Earnings Surveys 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2013. ²
B. Salary oncosts	£12,011 per year	Employer's national insurance is included plus 20 per cent of salary for employer's contribution to superannuation. ³
C. Qualifications	£25,430 per year	Qualification costs have been calculated using the method described in Netten et al. (1998). ⁴ Current cost information is drawn from research by Curtis et al. (2011). ⁵
D. Ongoing training		The General Social Care Council sets out a requirement that all social workers, as a condition of their three-yearly renewal of registration, should engage in development activity to meet a 'post registration teaching and learning' requirement of 15 days or 90 hours. ⁶ No costs are available.
E. Overheads Direct overheads	£14,675 per year	Direct overheads were 29 per cent of direct care salary costs. They include costs to the provider for administration and management, as well as for office, training and utilities such as water, gas and electricity.
Indirect overheads	£8,096 per year	Indirect overheads were 16 per cent of direct care salary costs. They include general management and support services such as finance and human resource departments. ⁷
F. Capital overheads	£1,897 per year	Based on the new-build and land requirements for a local authority office and shared facilities for waiting, interviews and clerical support. ^{8,9} Capital costs have been annuitised over 60 years at a discount rate of 3.5 per cent.
G. Travel		No information available on average mileage covered per visit. For information see Green Book: National Agreement on Pay and Conditions of Service. ¹⁰ Please complete our new time-use survey: https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/SZMF5YL.
Working time	41 weeks per year 37 hours per week	Includes 29 days annual leave and 8 statutory leave days. Ten days for study/training and 8.2 days sickness leave have been assumed based on the median average sickness absence level in England for all authorities. ^{9,11} Unit costs are based on 1,516 hours per year.
Ratios of direct to indirect time on: client-related work face-to-face contact	1:0.39 1:2.45	Ratios are estimated on the basis that 72 per cent of time is spent on client-related activities including direct contact (25%), case-related recording (23%), case-related work in own agency (10%) and case-related inter-agency work (14%). ¹² Face-to-face contact is not a good indicator of input to clients.

11.8 Family support worker

Family support workers provide emotional and practical help and advice to families who are experiencing long- or shortterm difficulties. A study carried out by the Centre for Child and Family Research (CCFR)¹ explored the costs of Intensive Family Support Services received by 43 families in two local authority areas (sites 1 and 2). In site 1, the average length of the intervention was just over one year (413 days) and ranged from seven months to one year, nine months. The average length of the intervention in Site 2 was just under one year (269 days) and ranged from two months to just under two years. The average cost of the IFS service per family in one local authority was £6,171 (£3,152-£9,950) and in the other £5,230 (£1,089-£14,271).

Costs and unit estimation	2012/2013 value	Notes
A. Wages/salary	£22,941 per year	Information taken from the Local Government Earnings Survey 2008 showed that the mean salary for a family support worker was £21,296. ² As no new salary estimates are available, this has been inflated to reflect the pay increments for social workers reported in the Local Government Earnings Surveys 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012. ³

12.5 Early intervention team for adults with mental health problems

Early intervention is a service for young people aged 14-35 during the first three years of a psychotic illness. They provide a range of services, including anti-psychotic medications and psycho-social interventions, tailored to the needs of young people with a view to facilitating recovery.¹ Staff and caseload information for this table has been taken from the mental health combined mapping website² and is based on data received from 150 service providers. NHS reference costs³ report the mean average cost for an early intervention team contact for 2011 was £177, with an interquartile range of £148-£194. See the 2008/09 National Survey of Investment in Adult Mental Health Services⁴ and McCrone et al. (2008) for more information on Early Intervention Teams.⁵ See the preface for information on changes to salaries, and section V for further information on pay scales.

12.6 Generic single-disciplinary CAMHS team

These teams provide services for children and young people with particular problems requiring particular types of intervention and within a defined geographical area.¹ Staff, caseload and cost information has been taken from the Child and Adolescent Mental Health Service (CAMHS)^{2,3} mapping database, and is based on returns from 2,094 teams of which 60 teams were generic single-disciplinary teams. The staff in these teams are almost exclusively clinical psychologists, educational psychologists and other therapists. The exceptions are teams of primary mental health workers which focus on psychological therapies. There are on average 4.13 wte per team (excluding administrative staff and managers). Costs have been uprated to 2012/2013 price levels using the appropriate inflators.

12.7 Generic multi-disciplinary CAMHS team

Staff mix, time use, caseload and cost information for this table has been taken from the Child and Adolescent Mental Health Service (CAMHS)^{1,2} mapping database, and is based on returns from 2,094 teams of which 421 teams were generic multi-disciplinary. Generic teams provide the backbone of specialist CAMHS provision, ensuring a range of therapeutic interventions were available to children, young people and families locally. Multidisciplinary generic teams, as the name implies, were largely staffed by a range of mental health professionals. The average size of multidisciplinary teams was 10.9 wte (excluding administrative staff and managers). Costs have been uprated to 2012/2013 price levels using the appropriate inflators.

12.10 Transition services for children with complex needs when transferring to adulthood

This table has been based on a study carried out by Sloper et al. (2010)¹ in which the costs for five transition services were studied in-depth. Three of the five transition services have been selected for inclusion here and represent low, median and high cost services (based on cost per case per year).

12.10.1 Transition services for children: medium cost

Relaunched in June 2007, the service was fully staffed for the first time just before the research interviews were undertaken. The team has no case-holding responsibilities or budget but works to co-ordinate transition for young people with very complex needs.

The team supports 184 young people. The average costs per working hour (including steering group) is £55 (£58) and the cost per case per year is £905 and £957 respectively. Time use: direct contact (7%), meetings with family (12%), liaison (45%) and report writing or assessments (36%).

12.10.2 Transition services for children: low cost

This service is based in a small unitary authority and was launched in June 2005. The co-ordinator works closely with other personnel in social services, health and education (including special schools) to ensure a smooth transition for disabled young people who have complex needs. The local voluntary sector organisation undertakes personal care planning and is in regular contact with the transition co-ordinator. This transition service has a complex 'cost picture' involving many people and agencies, and although much of the work planning transition support has been included, the cost of transition support has probably not been included.

The team supports 203 young people of whom 79 have complex needs and 124 have moderate intellectual disabilities. The cost per working hour for the team (including strategic management group) was £23 (£26) and cost per case per year £411 (£478). Time use: direct contact (40%), assessments and reports (10%), liaison (20%), travel (10%) and meetings (20%).

12.10.3 Transition services for children: high cost

This transition team is located in an education department within an integrated disabled children's service. The team was set up in November 2007 and the research interviews were undertaken in October 2008. There had been problems getting staff in place; many interviewees were involved in statutory duties as well and felt they had only just got to the point where transition work could begin.

The team supports 76 young people. The average costs per working hour (including steering group) is £38 (£39) and cost per case per year is £3,715 (£3,785). Time use: face-to-face contact (12%), telephone contact (17%): assessments and writing reports (28%); meetings with people and families (11%); liaison away from meetings (12%); travel (12% and general administration (10%).
